

Hundreds Gather for the Maryland Christian Chamber of Commerce's Official Launch Celebration

COLLEGE PARK, Md., March 30, 2026 – The Maryland Christian Chamber of Commerce (MDCCC) officially launched on Thursday, March 19, 2026, with a celebratory ceremony at the Samuel Riggs IV Alumni Center at the University of Maryland, College Park.

The event drew nearly 250 guests and marked the start of a statewide movement uniting Christian entrepreneurs, business leaders, ministry partners, and community influencers to advance Kingdom principles in Maryland's marketplace. The MDCCC is a member of the U.S. Christian Chamber of Commerce (USCCC)'s Christian Chamber Coalition.

Highlights of the evening included a grand opening with the blast of a shofar, a graduation-style ceremony recognizing the MDCCC's founding members, a citation presented by the Maryland General Assembly, and a large prayer circle with all attendees standing hand-in-hand to dedicate the MDCCC's work to the Lord. Following a preview of upcoming events and an official ribbon cutting, the MDCCC was declared open for business.

Guest speakers included Krystal Parker (President, USCCC), Frank Kelly III (CEO, Kelly Benefits), Patrice Tsague (CSO, The Nehemiah E-Community), and Bill Yeargin (CEO, Correct Craft).

"Throughout the evening, we did our best to convey that Christ was at the center of our work," said MDCCC President and Founder, Dr. Nicole Davis. "I'm grateful for the overwhelmingly positive response towards this outward display of our faith."

"The launch of the Maryland Christian Chamber of Commerce is a defining moment for the state. This is what it looks like when faith-driven leaders come together with purpose—to strengthen businesses, influence culture, and advance the Kingdom through commerce," said Krystal Parker. "Dr. Davis and her team have built something extraordinary, and this chamber is positioned to be a powerful force for impact across the state."
