Attorney Brooke Boltz Joins Board of Directors of U.S. Christian Chamber of Commerce

The nation's largest Christian Chamber network strengthens leadership with top Florida attorney and entrepreneur

ORLANDO, Fla. (August 06, 2025) — The U.S. Christian Chamber of Commerce, a national movement uniting Christian business leaders and organizations to advance the Kingdom of God through commerce, has unanimously elected Brooke Boltz, managing attorney of Boltz Legal, to its board of directors.

“Brooke Boltz is not just a legal expert—she’s a bold advocate for Christ in the marketplace,” said Chamber President Krystal Parker. “She brings legal insight, entrepreneurial leadership, and unwavering Kingdom conviction. Her sharp mind, deep faith, and proven business acumen will help accelerate our mission to advance the Kingdom through commerce. We are honored to welcome her to our leadership team.”

A Florida native, Boltz earned her political science degree and law degree from Stetson University. She previously served as a partner at a leading civil litigation firm before founding Boltz Legal to champion clients with a bold, Christ-centered approach to personal injury law.

Beyond her legal victories, Boltz co-hosts the “Ms. Biz” podcast, a global top-1.5-percent business show blending strategy and faith. Recent honors include BNI Oviedo’s “Most Inspirational Entrepreneur,” the Oviedo-Winter Springs Chamber’s “Best Woman-Owned Business,” Orlando’s “Top 3 Personal Injury Law Firm” (2024, 2025) and the National Trial Attorney Association’s “Golden Gavel Award.”

“I believe faith belongs in the boardroom, the courtroom, and the business world,” Boltz said. “Joining this board is not just an honor—it’s a divine assignment. We are building an unstoppable alliance of Christian business leaders who are ready to advance the Kingdom with courage, excellence, and results.”

As a board member, Boltz will contribute legal insight, entrepreneurial leadership, and bold Kingdom perspective to support the Chamber’s national expansion, strengthen member value, and help shape the future of faith-driven commerce in the U.S.
